Pat Shortt - Hey!

Thursday 03 January | £25.00 | 8pm

Auditorium | Genre: Comedy

Pat Shortt is back with a brand new stage show called 'Hey!' Following the sell out successes of 'The Hall', 'Selfie' and 'How's Things?' and fresh from starring roles in the hit play 'A Skull In Connemara' and the film 'The Belly of The Whale', Ireland's best loved comedian takes to the road with his latest quirky look at Irish life.

Featuring new material and sketches, this new show is a rogue's gallery of odd ball characters, bizarre situations and even a song or two! 'Hey!' delivers a peculiar take on modern life that only the unique imagination of Pat Shortt could conjure up.

A show not to be missed. Hey! you have been warned!

Suitable for 16+ years.

The Pure Country Show

Friday 04 January | £19.50 | 8pm

Auditorium | Genre: Music

Back by popular demand the hugely successful The Pure Country Show returns to The Ardhowen for another foot stamping night of classic country with 5 of Ireland's finest country singers: Mick Flavin, Eamon McCann, Anthony Mc Brien, Matt Leavy and Stephen Smyth who each will showcase well known hit songs from all the greats in Country Music accompanied by a super live band with that authentic Nashville sound. This has been a sell-out show now annually so early booking is advisable.

Arty McGlynn and Nollaig Casey

Saturday 05 January | £12.00 | 9pm
Gallery Bar | Genre: Music

Arty McGlynn (guitar) and Nollaig Casey (fiddle and vocals) are two of Ireland's most acclaimed musicians, with international reputations for excellence in the field of Irish Folk music.

Arty received the TG4 Lifetime Achievement Award in 2016 for outstanding contribution to Irish traditional music. He is one of Ireland's most accomplished guitar players, having played with Liam O'Flynn, Patrick Street, Van Morrison, to name but a few.

Nollaig has played with the likes of Riverdance, Enya, Rod Stewart and Planxty.

This concert will feature Arty and Nollaig with a dynamic set of Irish music and song: a blend of beautiful melodies and exciting dance music, both old and new. Arty is also celebrating the release of his brand new album, 'Botera'.

Ali Baba And The Forty Thieves

by Norman Robbins

Thursday 10 to Sunday 13 January | £13.00 / £11.00 Concession | 7.30pm
Tuesday 15 to Saturday 19 January | £13.00 / £11.00 Concession | 7.30pm
Matinees: Saturday 12, Sunday 13, Saturday 19 | £13.00 / £10.00 Concession | 2.30pm
Auditorium | Genre: Family

The Lakeland Players return with 'Ali Baba And The Forty Thieves'. Although not a common story line, this pantomime by Norman Robbins contains the classic ingredients of goodies, baddies, an outrageous pantomime dame, corny jokes, a lively mix of music and 'behind you' scenes to have you delighted and groaning in equal measure! Find out how Ali Baba, with a lot of help from his friends, overcomes the evil Al Raschid and how Tinbad the Tailor stitches up the plot. We do not guarantee forty thieves (the wardrobe mistress won't produce the costumes!) but we do offer plenty of laughs and excitement for children and adults alike.

'Babe in Arms' tickets available for the matinee performances upon request from the Box Office.

Please note: Patrons should note that this production contains visual effects which may include pyrotechnics.

Bagatelle in Concert

Friday 25 January | £25.00 | 8pm

Auditorium | Genre: Music

Bagatelle started in 1978 at a time when original bands weren't all that successful in Ireland. In fact, the idea of a band touring nationwide with a full original music set just didn't work out – for most!

However, Bagatelle's music did work and would establish them firmly on the Irish Music Circuit/Worldwide. Over those 40 years they have had several Number 1 singles with iconic songs like Summer In Dublin, Second Violin, Trump Card and more

They have shared stages with legends like Bob Marley, John Denver, The Pogues, Duran Duran, Van Morrison, George Micheal, U2, Jose Feliciano and UB40. The list is endless!

Two years ago they completed their Final Year Tour, retired (for all of about three months) got bored not touring, then played a major series of their 'One For The Road' sold out gigs right across Ireland and the UK.

Now they bring Bagatelle @ 40 – 40 Years of Original Music to The Ardhoven. This is not to be missed!

Enniskillen Amateur Dramatic
Society presents

Sive by JB Keane

Thursday 14, Friday 15 & Saturday 16 February

£12.00 | 8pm

Auditorium | Genre: Theatre

Following the success of 'The Field', Enniskillen Amateur Dramatic Society returns with famous Irish playwright, J B Keane's, first published play 'Sive'.

Powerful and provocative, 'Sive' is the story of a scheming matchmaker and a resentful woman forcing a beautiful young girl to marry an old man.

Set against the harsh poverty of 1950's Ireland it is a story inspired by a true situation, witnessed by J B Keane in his early years as a publican in Listowel.

'I put everything into the writing of the play. For me, writing the final scene was one of the most profound moments of my life, and I found myself overwhelmed by emotion'

Tuesday 19 & Wednesday 20 February

£22.50 | 8pm

Auditorium | Genre: Comedy

The Give My Head Peace crew have been selling out theatres all over Northern Ireland for years and, fresh from their Christmas Special on BBC1, they hit the road with a brand new stage show in February and March 2019. We'd like to tell you what the show's going to be about but given Brexit, Trump, and an empty Stormont...who knows? Anything can happen! All we know for sure is that Ma, Cal, Da, Billy, and Dympna will be there. Uncle Andy can't make it (he's spending a year in bed in order to get a PIP claim) so he's asked his old mucker Big Mervyn (BJ Hogg) to take over. And along with Ulster's favourite menacing cleric Pastor Begbie (Paddy Jenkins) the gang guarantee a night of topical comedy, fantastic jokes and up to the minute satire. Plus there'll be some superb stand-up from Tim McGarry. Don't miss the funniest show of the year.

Some Guys Have All The Luck

Thursday 21 February | £25.00 | 8pm

Auditorium | Music

Some Guys Have All The Luck is a brand new theatre production direct from London's West End celebrating the life and career of Rod Stewart, one of rock music's greatest icons. Starring Paul Metcalfe and featuring a fantastic live band with impeccable credits, the show takes the audience through Rod's incredible story, from his humble beginnings through to worldwide superstardom and record sales in excess of 100 million!

The first half of the show charts Rod's rise to fame from his early days singing in the r'n'b clubs of the 60's through to worldwide success in the early 70's. It features songs from the earlier part of Rod's career, including 'Handbags And Gladrags', 'In A Broken Dream',

'Stay With Me', 'Ooh La La' and 'Wear It Well'. It also includes an unplugged section.

The second half of the show captures all the excitement and energy of a Rod Stewart concert and is full of the same swaggering showmanship, audience participation and sheer sense of fun. It is crammed full of hits such as 'Maggie May', 'Sailing', 'Baby Jane', 'Da Ya Think I'm Sexy', 'Tonight's The Night', 'The First Cut Is The Deepest' and 'You're In My Heart' to name but a few! Paul throws his mic stand around, comes out into the audience and even kicks a volley of signed footballs into the crowd!

Auditorium | Genre: Music

Caritas is now a thriving mixed-voice choir of about 40 members. It was formed in 2014 and features local singers from County Fermanagh. They rehearse weekly in Fermanagh House on Friday evenings.

The group members, in addition to the choral performances, like to feature the talents of the members: traditional musicians, solo players and many capable vocal soloists from within the group. They have raised over £5000 for local charities and have recently been described 'the choir with the big heart'.

This will be another wonderful night of Caritas as we present you with a variety of local musical talent under the guidance of Helen Hamill.

The Matchmaker

Saturday 27 April | £18.00, Concession £16.00 | 8pm

Auditorium | Theatre

By J B Keane

Following recent sold out performances, Michael Scott's iconic production of John B Keane's hit comedy play 'The Matchmaker' makes a welcome return to The Ardhowen stage.

'The Matchmaker' is performed by two of Ireland's favourite actors, Mary McEvoy and Jon Kenny. Together they play a myriad of characters in this hilarious and earthy dramatic comedy.

The play follows the efforts of Dicky Mick Dicky O Connor to make matches for the lonely and lovelorn. Keane, an avid observer of people and the cultures that bind and create their view of the world, uses 'The Matchmaker' as an exploration of rural loneliness. Aware that generations of people became masters of their own destinies late in life, and only then began to look for companionship and love, once their duties as minder of aging parents were concluded or they had finally inherited, or were the left over brother or sister.

Using his inimitable way with words and his one sense of 'devilment' and wit, Keane delves into the longings, hungers, fears and foibles of this collection of lonely country people and creates a marvellously colourful world, taking us back to a simpler time, when phones were few and far between and the only web was one left behind by spiders.

Suitable for 12+ years.

Michael Magill Entertainments presents

The 4 Of Us

Saturday 18 May | £12.00 | 9pm

Gallery Bar | Genre: Music

Expect a night of classic hits as well as new material from one of the most successful Irish bands in history.

The 4 of Us have been a steadfast part of Irish music history for over a quarter of a century. Formed and fronted by Newry-born brothers Brendan and Declan Murphy, they have notched up six Top 20 Irish charting albums and their music has featured extensively on American, UK and Irish TV soundtracks. Their latest album Sugar Island was launched to huge critical acclaim. Tonight, they present songs from this album as well as their back catalogue of familiar hits including favourites 'Mary' and 'She Hits Me'.

Colin Murphy – Big Time!

Thursday 23 May | £20.00 | 8pm

Auditorium | Genre: Comedy

Fresh from another series of award winning Friday night stalwart, The Blame Game, and from fronting his new BBC series, Colin Murphy's Panic Room, he's back on the road with a new tour show Big Time!

Following the sell-out run of his 2018 Bald Ambition Tour, he'll be taking Big Time across the land, using both motorways and most of the dual carriageways, doing what he does best and peeling away the layers of what makes us.

*Warning: some of this show was written on holiday whilst in the EU and, as this tour runs over the March 29th Brexit date, some of these jokes may not be eligible for inclusion and/or not be deemed funny enough to comply with new post Brexit arrangements. Also there may or may not be any electricity.

Please note: Recommended for age 16+ years as some people may find the content offensive.

Anthony Toner

Friday 24 May | £12.00 | 8pm

Gallery Bar | Genre: Music

Anthony Toner, once memorably described as 'James Taylor meets John Prine in a second hand book shop', returns to The Ardhowen to celebrate the release of his ninth album, 'Our Lady of the Wind and Rain'.

Since the release of the popular single 'Sailortown' ten years ago, Anthony has been in constant motion, releasing a string of popular albums and playing countless live performances, the songs interweaved with insightful, moving and funny stories. Along the way he has chalked up a string of memorable songs, including 'Well Well Well', 'The Road to Fivemiletown', 'East Of Louise' and recently 'An Alphabet', a moving song inspired by his father's Alzheimer's condition. Expect an evening of peerless guitar playing and songs old and new.

DMC Promotions presents

The Kilkenny's in concert

Saturday 25 May | 8pm | £15.00

Auditorium | Genre: Music

The Kilkennys are at the very forefront of folk groups taking Irish music to the world. They have already proved to be a hit with northern audiences over recent years and their return will once again show why the reputation of this talented and energetic four piece group continues to grow well beyond these shores.

Following recent tours in Europe, the U.S. and Asia, and their acclaimed performance on The Late Late Show on RTÉ, the fame of The Kilkennys continues to grow. This show will take the audience on a journey through the Irish folk and ballad tradition, it will feature many well-known ballads as well as new material from The Kilkennys that continues the centuries old Irish bardic tradition. From songs of love to ballads of emigration, The Kilkennys will provide an unforgettable, energy filled, toe-tapping and hand-clapping night of entertainment sprinkled with some of Ireland's most prolific songs and ballads.

Chewing The Fat In Concert

Friday 31 May | £15.00 | 8pm

Auditorium | Genre: Music

London born multi-instrumentalist James Patrick Gavin creates folk music that dances the line between tradition and irreverence, London and Ireland, groove and grace. Known for previous work with Teyr, The Rad Orchestra and Jez Hellard and The Djukella Orchestra, his debut solo album 'Chewing The Fat' was released in February 2018 to wide acclaim. Described as 'magnificent' by Folk Radio UK, the record contains a wealth of new and old material that weaves together three generations of his own Fermanagh family.

The new album 'Chewing The Fat' blends folk tunes, songs, spoken word and field recordings in an ode to roots and identity. It's a unique sonic world that both showcases Gavin's instrumental skill, compositional prowess and his broad talent for collaboration. The album was launched in London with a sell-out 11-piece show at the Union Chapel.

'Chewing The Fat' features an award winning host of guests including singers J. Eoin, Seamus Gavin and Jez Hellard, accordionist Tommie Black-Roff, bouzouki and bodhrán player Tad Sargent, flautist Orlaith McAuliffe, piper Dominic Henderson, guitarist Adrian Lever and banjoist Hugh O'Niell. This unique gathering of some of the UK and Ireland's finest folk musicians presents a rare joining-of-dots between innumerable bands from previous decades.

An Evening of Song with Donaghadee Male Voice Choir

Saturday 1 June | £10.00 | 8pm

Founded in 1932, Donaghadee Male Voice Choir began as a small local chorus performing in churches and other local functions. From those beginnings 86 years ago the choir has developed and flourished over the years. The choir's current Musical Director is Ivan Black.

Choir repertoire embraces both secular and sacred music, and popular, folk, traditional and operatic works.

Donaghadee Male Voice Choir's reputation extends far beyond these shores.

Today it is known internationally, having participated in choral festivals throughout Europe and has also undertaken several concert tours of Canada and the USA where it performed in the Carnegie Hall and St Patrick's Cathedral in New York.

The choir is looking forward to returning to The Ardhoven for another wonderful evening of song and is delighted to have as guests, the terrific Enniskillen Model Primary School Choir and the ever popular country legend Crawford Bell.

The Perfect Gift for any Occasion

Gift Vouchers can be purchased over the phone on 028 6632 5440 online www.ardhoven.com or call into the theatre.
