Knocks Drama present The Real McCoy

Venue: Auditorium
Price: Full Price £12 / Concession £10
Time: 8pm

Billed as Ireland's funniest comedy – The Knocks Drama Group bring The Real McCoy by Irish Playwright Tommy Marren to The Ardhowen stage.

The play follows Madge Molloy (a single mum in her 60's) over a two-day period in the Spring of 1964. Madge has raised her daughter Maura alone since her husband Tom disappeared without a trace over 40 years ago.

Madge firmly believes she is better off without Tom, and has become cold and bitter towards men, causing conflict when Maura falls in love with the local postman. However, this is the least of her worries as new curate to the parish – Father Michael McCoy – has arrived in town and is able to shed some light on the mystery surrounding her absent husband...Tom is coming back and wants to meet!

Along with this, Madge has two of the nosiest neighbours, Cora and Nora O'Hora to cope with, who always seem to cause more conflict.

This truly hilarious play is a rollercoaster of emotions, packed with witty one-liners, a nostalgic trip back in time and feisty characters.

Footloose the musical

FSOMPA Presents Footloose!

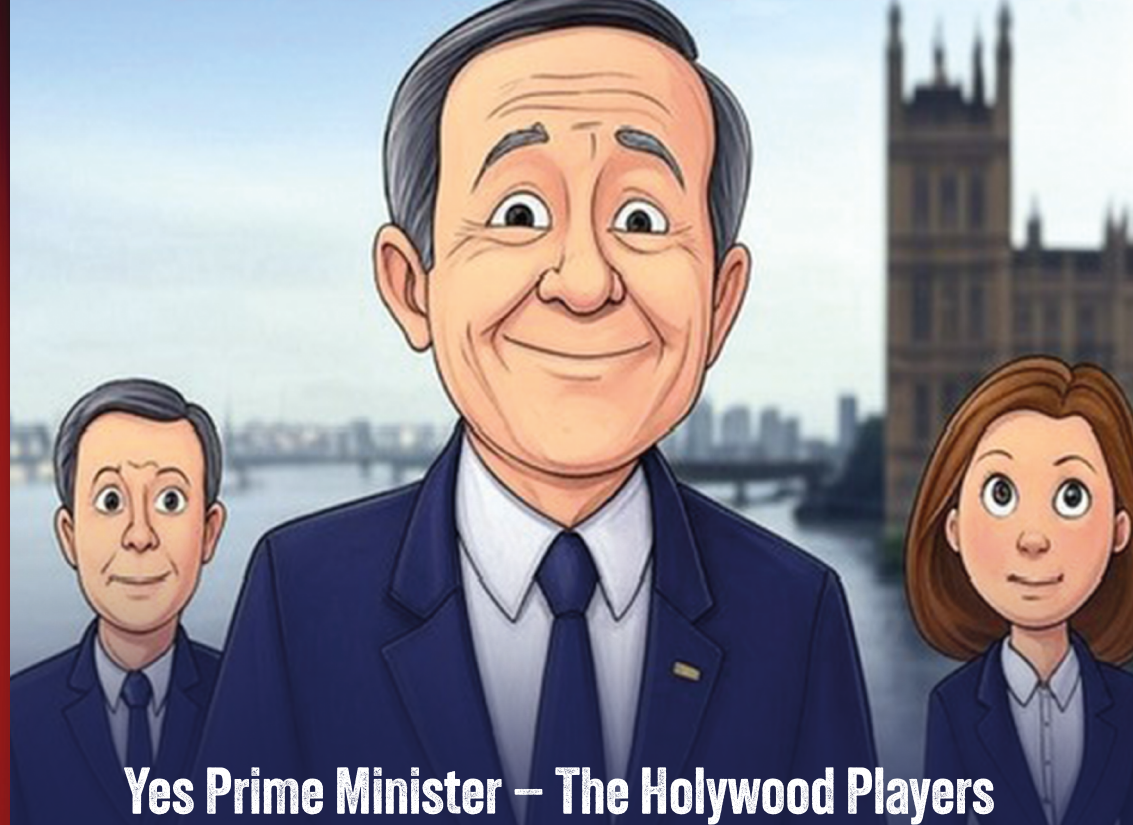

Fermanagh School of Music and Performing Arts return to the Ardhowen theatre with their performance of 'Footloose'.

When Ren and his mother move from Chicago to a small farming town, he is prepared for the inevitable adjustment period at his new high school. But he's not prepared for the rigorous local edicts, including a ban on dancing instituted by the local preacher, who is determined to exercise control over the town's youth. When the reverend's rebellious daughter sets her sights on Ren, her roughneck boyfriend tries to sabotage Ren's reputation, with many of the locals eager to believe the worst about the new kid.

The heartfelt story that emerges pins a father longing for the son he lost against a young man aching for the father who walked out on him. To the rockin' rhythm of its Oscar and Tony-nominated Top 40 score, augmented with dynamic new songs, Footloose celebrates the wisdom of listening to young people while guiding them with a warm heart and open mind.
