Agatha Crusty And The Village Hall Murders

By Derek Webb

Auditorium | Theatre

Friday, Saturday 24, 25 August

Time 8 pm

Tickets £11.00, concession £10.00

Agatha Crusty (pronounced Croosty) is a crime novelist. She is also pretty adept at solving crimes. And when her sister-in-law Alice invites her to spend a few days with her, it's not long before she gets caught up in a series of murders which seem directed at members of the local Village Hall committee. From Toby, the Vicar, and Eleanor, Chair of the committee, to Harry Knott the caretaker and identical twins Olivia and Oliver Truscott-Pratt, there are plenty of suspects. And with an investigating officer as incompetent as D.I. Twigg, there are plenty of laughs as the murders begin to pile up.

But, while packed full of wit and very funny scenes, this is also a genuine murder mystery with an ingenious plot which will tax the little grey cells of the audience at the same time!

Irish harp and uilleann pipes, a very traditional sound but quite a rare one in these days of wider instrument choice: here they are played by two of the best, Co. Mayo harper Laoise Kelly and Co. Monaghan piper Tiarnán Ó Duinnchinn.

Despite their individual brilliance, these musicians pay tribute to previous generations with 'Ar Lorg Na Laochra, On The Shoulders Of Giants'. The sound of the two instruments are like echo chambers into the past.
